MEAL CODES: M = AIRPLANE MEALS // B = FULL IRISH
BREAKFAST // D = DINNER

Day 1: Monday, March 16th: Depart USA:

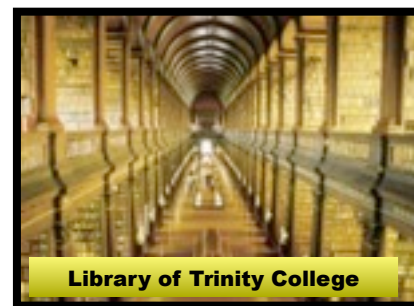

All group members, dressed in green, depart Chicago's O'Hare Airport to board our with Aer Lingus (Ireland's airline) flight to the Emerald Isle (go to Aer Lingus Terminal #5). Enjoy your flight with dinner and on-board electronic entertainment, and relax as we fly into the Irish time zone. First night is spent on-board. (M)

Day 2: Tuesday, March 17th (Feast of St. Patrick): Happy St. Patrick's Day:

After a small breakfast on-board, arrive in Dublin, the historic Capital of Ireland. Clear Irish Immigrations and Customs and board our group's coach. First, we go to Mass to celebrate the Feast Day of the Patron Saint of Ireland, St. Patrick. Holy Mass is celebrated at the Pro-Cathedral of St. Mary (present Catholic Cathedral while the original Catholic Cathedral of the Most Holy Trinity - Christchurch - is under 'occupation'). After Mass, before heading to our hotel, walk to Dublin's most famous street, O'Connell Street, with the widest bridge in Europe, and pass by the famous Post Office (site of the 1916 encounter) to catch a glimpse of the festivities. Check in at historic Dunboyne Castle hotel and enjoy a welcome dinner. (M, D)

Day 3: Wednesday, March 18th: Glendalough and Dublin City:

Travel to County Wicklow (the garden county of Ireland) to see the 6th century monastic ruins of Glendalough. Nestled in a valley surrounded by the mountains of Wicklow, Glendalough exudes the peacefulness so much desired for the contemplative prayer of the monks. St. Kevin founded this settlement and St. Lawrence O'Toole made it famous at a time when Christianity was burgeoning throughout Ireland. Today the monks have long gone, leaving the ruins of numerous tombs, chapels, Celtic Crosses and a round tower. After this visit, enjoy the scenic drive to Dublin City where a city tour awaits us. Start with visit to Trinity College to view one of the world's most famous copies of the Holy Scriptures known as the 'Book of Kells', plus the 'Book of Armagh' containing the confessions of St. Patrick. After this visit, go to historic White Friars Church (Holy Mass celebrated here), a Carmelite church where the beautiful Our Lady of Dublin wooden sculpture and the relics of St. Valentine can be found. After Mass, drive by St. Patrick's Cathedral (where St. Patrick baptized the locals) and Christchurch Cathedral (both Cathedral's captured by the English in the 1600's and now Anglican Churches). Return to our hotel and rest. Dinner on your own tonight. (B)

Library of Trinity College

Lough Derg

Day 4: Thursday, March 19th (Feast of St. Joseph): Drogheda, Lough Derg and Donegal:

Travel north this morning from County Dublin to County Meath driving through a region rich in history and pre-history. This is the reputed area where St. Patrick explained the Blessed Trinity to the pagan king of Ireland using the Shamrock as an example. Arrive in Drogheda where the remains of Saint Oliver Plunkett (a great Martyr for our faith and for Ireland) can be found. Holy Mass celebrated here. After Mass continue our scenic drive to Donegal, one of the most scenic counties of Ireland. On our way there we pass through the town of Kells (as in the Book of Kells), temporarily enter the United Kingdom to pass through Enniskillen and Inverness. Re-enter Ireland arriving at Lough Derg (Lake Derg) a special pilgrimage place of peace that has been receiving pilgrims continuously for well over 1,000 years. Enjoy a boat ride tour of Lough Derg to admire Saint's Island (commonly known as Station Island) where St. Patrick himself spent 40 days in penance (St. Patrick's Purgatory). Irish pilgrims come here on three-day pilgrimages with no meals nor shoes! Afterwards check into your hotel in County Donegal. After check-in, relax and join your fellow pilgrims at our group dinner. (B, D)

Day 5: Friday, March 20th: Stranorlar, Glencolumcille, Killibegs and Donegal Town:

Flanked by the Blue Stack Mountains, travel to one of the twin towns of the Finn Valley, Stranorlar. We have Eucharistic Adoration at St. Mary Immaculate followed by Holy Mass at this historic parish. From here travel west to a beautiful place called Glencolumcille (Gleann Cholm Cille) an Irish speaking village situated in a picturesque glenn named after St. Columbcill (also known as St. Columba), one of Ireland's most famous Saints (from County Donegal). He founded a monastery here as he also did in Kells and in the Island of Iona (where the Book of Kells was written). From there, continue on our Donegal journey to Killibegs, a picturesque fishing port situated at the mouth of Donegal Bay. Because this county is famous for the Donegal Tweed, there will be opportunity for shopping today. Return to our hotel and relax. Dinner on your own tonight. (B)

Day 6: Saturday, March 21st: County Sligo and Knock Shrine:

Head south for County Sligo, an area well associated with the great poet W.B. Yeats. Sligo is also famous for the peculiar shape of its mountains, like Ben Bulbin (Mount Bulbin). Here you'll visit Tobernault, a peaceful glen where many pilgrims come to pray in remembrance of times when the Catholic faith was forbidden. Of great importance is the Mass Rock, used by Priests during Penal times in the 18th century, when churches were closed or confiscated. Everyone who came to Mass was risking their life, especially the Priests. A prayer will be said here for all those persecuted for their faith (specially Catholic Priests). Afterwards continue to Knock, Ireland's center of Marian devotion. Knock Shrine is one of the most celebrated Marian shrines where the Virgin Mary, along with St. Joseph and St. John the Evangelist, appeared to 15 people on August 21, 1879. Holy Mass is celebrated at the site of the apparition. There will be time for Confession and Stations of the Cross. End the day here in Knock. After check-in, gather with your fellow travelers to enjoy a group dinner. (B, D)

Basilica of Our Lady of KNOCK

MEAL CODES: M = AIRPLANE MEALS // B = FULL IRISH

Day 7: Sunday, March 22nd: Ballintubber Abbey, Croagh Patrick, Connemara and Galway:

Start the day with Sunday Mass at the Knock Shrine. After Mass, travel west through County Mayo and arrive at Ballintubber Abbey where St. Patrick's Well can be found. This is the site where St. Patrick baptized the locals in the area. After this visit, pass through the city of Westport, famous for being one of the two major points of emigration during the Irish famine. A short distance outside of Westport, we climb the slopes of Croagh Patrick, a persistent landmark throughout central and southern Mayo. It was once sacred to the pagan god 'crom', but St. Patrick spent 40 days of Lent here around 441 AD and won the mountain for Christianity. In the afternoon, drive through the Connemara National Park, where sweeping views of boglands and misty mountains compose the majority of this National Park. Here it is common to hear locals chatting in the Irish language and to see sheep grazing freely. Tracts of bogland can be seen here, where people hand-cut peat for home heating. Stop by the Connemara Celtic Glass Factory to see why the Irish are also famous for glass making. End the day in Galway City, City of the Tribes, famous for the Claddagh Ring, representing its Irish/Spanish past. We check in to our Galway hotel where we enjoy dinner and overnight stay. (B, D)

Apparition Chapel of Our Lady of KNOCK

Cathedral of Galway (St. Nicholas & Mary)

Day 8: Monday, March 23rd: Cong and Galway City:

Travel by the eastern side of lake Corrib, the largest lake in the Republic, to visit the town of Cong, Ireland, most famous for being the filming site of the acclaimed movie "The Quiet Man" with Maureen O'Hara and John Wayne. This movie epitomizes all the stereotypes of the Irish in a fun and memorable way. Visit the quiet ruins of the Cong Abbey, and walk through the forest until reaching the majestic grounds of Ashford Castle on the coast of Lake Corrib. Originally known as the Guinness Mansion, Ashford Castle is one of the few 5-star Castles in Ireland. Return to Galway City for Holy Mass at the awesome Cathedral of St. Nicholas and Mary. After Mass, enjoy a leisure afternoon and evening in Galway's pedestrian city center. Dinner on your own tonight. (B)

Day 9: Tuesday, March 24th: Burren, Cliffs of Moher, Shannon Ferry and County Kerry:

After a hearty full Irish breakfast, embark on a beautiful journey of the West of Ireland. First depart County Galway traveling through the Burren Country, an area of silvery-gray limestone that has weathered into curious pavements and elsewhere into mountains or cliffs. Despite its windswept appearance, it is home to a number of rare Irish wild flowers. Then head west to visit the spectacular and massive Cliffs of Moher, which rise 700 feet above the Atlantic Ocean and extend five miles along the coast. Continue south along the coast and then turn to Killimer where we cross the mighty River Shannon. Arrive in County Kerry. Relax and enjoy the beautiful countryside (Rosary and meditation on-board). We arrive in lively Killarney situated with a backdrop of mountains and lakes. Holy Mass at the Franciscan Friary of Killarney. Afterwards, enjoy a group dinner at our hotel. (B, D)

Cliffs of Moher, Co. Clare

around beautiful Galway Bay. Arrive in County Clare and drive through the Burren Country, an area of silvery-gray limestone that has weathered into curious pavements and elsewhere into mountains or cliffs. Despite its windswept appearance, it is home to a number of rare Irish wild flowers. Then head west to visit the spectacular and massive Cliffs of Moher, which rise 700 feet above the Atlantic Ocean and extend five miles along the coast. Continue south along the coast and then turn to Killimer where we cross the mighty River Shannon. Arrive in County Kerry. Relax and enjoy the beautiful countryside (Rosary and meditation on-board). We arrive in lively Killarney situated with a backdrop of mountains and lakes. Holy Mass at the Franciscan Friary of Killarney. Afterwards, enjoy a group dinner at our hotel. (B, D)

Day 10 Wednesday, March 25th: Ring of Kerry and Killarney:

Embark on a spectacular journey through one of Ireland's loveliest districts. The Ring of Kerry! "Heaven's Reflex" as Poets, painters, writers and musicians have all tried to convey its beauty of mountains and lakes. Drive along the coastline of the broad Iveragh Peninsula where the road winds between the Macgillycuddy's Reeks, the highest mountains in Ireland, and the Atlantic Ocean and enjoy plenty of stops to admire the views. Travel through Caherdaniel and Waterville at the western end of the peninsula and enjoy the bracing Atlantic breezes. Continue your drive through the colorful Irish speaking village of Sneem and the vantage point of Moll's Gap. Return to Killarney in time for Holy Mass at Killarney's beautiful Cathedral. Leisure evening with dinner on your own at one of the many options available. (B)

Day 11: Thursday, March 26th: Cork (Blarney Stone) and Bunratty:

Depart Killarney driving through the Kerry Mountains into County Cork, to visit Blarney Castle, where you may climb a tower to acquire the "gift of eloquence" by kissing the popular stone in the ramparts of Blarney Castle. If you do not wish to climb, you may want to walk through the gardens, around the village green or do some shopping at the Blarney Woollen Mills, renowned for their quality Irish merchandise of all types. Continue your drive into the Irish countryside where you can see the "Forty Shades of Green" as you pass through the dairy region of Cork and the farm area of County Tipperary. Drive through the outskirts of Limerick and cross the wide River Shannon and arrive to our hotel. Celebrate Farewell Mass in a spirit of thanksgiving for a fruitful pilgrimage. Afterwards, a treat awaits us! This evening join in the fun and feasting at Bunratty Castle. Your medieval-style banquet is served in the Great Hall of the 15th century castle during which the lords and ladies of the castle transport you in spirit to the Middle Ages with their songs and stories. (B, D)

Day 12: Friday, March 27th: Return to USA:

All too soon, our pilgrimage in Ireland has come to the end. Transfer to Shannon Airport in plenty of time to check in for your flight and clear security. You may do some last minute shopping at the duty free stores. During your connection in Dublin, clear US Immigration, then relax, board your wide-body Aer Lingus jet and enjoy the flight across the Atlantic Ocean back to the United States. Arrive in the US on the same day. Proceed straight to US Customs (by-passing US Immigration which was pre-cleared in Dublin) to collect your luggage. Those connecting with other airlines, stop by the airlines baggage counter right outside US Customs to check-in your luggage for your connection flights. Welcome Home! (B, M)

Travelers with Special Needs: Passengers who require attention must advise the tour operator at the time of booking. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need such assistance and must assume full responsibility for their well being. Coaches are not equipped with wheelchair accessible ramps, therefore all tour members must be able to mount 3 to 5 steps into the coach. Participants should expect to walk between 1 and 3 miles per day. Walking surfaces may at times be uneven. Landa Cleary Travel Co., Inc. is not responsible for denial of service by any suppliers.

Young Travelers: Travelers who are less than 18 years old on the departure date must be accompanied by an adult and must share the adult's accommodations. If a child will be traveling with adults other than the parents or with only one parent, it is highly recommended that a notarized letter be written by the parents or non-traveling parent granting authorization to travel, including the dates of travel. We suggest that you also contact the appropriate consulate and airlines because they may have additional requirements.

Air Transportation: We have selected airlines that are most suitable with land arrangements. All fares are subject to government approval and are subject to change without notice. Airfares are guaranteed once they have been paid in full and ticketed. Name changes required after tickets have been issued are subject to cancellation and re-ticketing at a higher fare or subject to change fees. Some airlines do not allow you to earn frequent flier miles for group bookings.

Airline Seating: Passengers who require specific seating due to medical conditions need to obtain Doctor's Orders so the airlines have proof of the condition and may accommodate the order. Passengers who desire a specific non-medical related seat are requested to contact the airline directly 30 days prior to departure for preferred seating. Group seating is solely under control of the airline.

Voluntary changes to itinerary: Independent voluntary changes to an individual passenger's itinerary are usually not permitted by most of our tour suppliers. Some exceptions may be granted in a case-by-case basis. If passenger purchased a land only package, they are free to plan their own itinerary before or after the trip (read Land Only bookings for restrictions). All change requests must be made prior to 45 days before departure.

Not Included: All items of a personal nature (room service, beverages, telephone charges, laundry, etc) and meals not specified on the tour itinerary are not included and must be paid by the passenger.

Accommodations and Itinerary: Land arrangements are provided as described in the tour program. The tour company reserves the right to change or substitute (1) hotels for accommodations in similar categories (2) or features of the itinerary in order to accommodate changes in the schedule.

Meals: Meals are provided as specified in the tour program. If you require special meals due to dietary restrictions, we must receive written details of your requirements at the time of booking.

Passports: Obtaining a passport is the sole responsibility of the passenger. Passports must be current and valid beyond the dates of travel. Your airline ticket name must match your passport name or you may be denied boarding the airplane. Passengers who are denied boarding due to discrepancies between ticket and passport names or because of expired passports accept full responsibility and are subject to the cancellation terms of the tour. Some countries such as Israel require that your passport be valid 6 months beyond your travel dates.

Smoking: Smoking is not allowed on the motorcoach but frequent stops are made throughout the day.

Tips: Gratuities for baggage, hotel and restaurants detailed in the itinerary are included. Gratuities for Tour Guides, Local Guides and Motorcoach Drivers are not included – please see your final documents for recommendations on tipping.

Total Group Cancellation: If it becomes necessary to cancel an entire tour prior to departure, Landa Cleary Travel Co., Inc. will offer the next available date or will make a full refund of money paid. Landa Cleary Travel Co., Inc. cannot accept responsibility for any additional costs or fees relating to such a tour booking or for any cancellation penalties due to non-refundable airfares, unless ticket is purchased as part of our negotiated group booking.

Land Only Bookings: Passenger(s) who desire to book their own airfare do at their own risk. Land only passengers are responsible for connecting with the group at the hotel. Passenger(s) accept all responsibility for costs incurred due to misconnections with the group. Landa Cleary Travel Co., Inc. cannot accept responsibility for any additional costs or fees relating to such a tour booking or for any cancellation penalties due to non-refundable airfares, unless ticket is purchased as part of our negotiated group booking.

Luggage: Handling of one piece of luggage per person is included in the cost of all tours. Luggage is carried at owner's risk throughout the tour (insurance suggested). Hand baggage and small articles such as coats, umbrellas or cameras are entirely in the care of the passenger. Size and weight limitations for carry-on and checked baggage vary from airline to airline and even according to destination, and are becoming more restrictive. Check your final documents for details of acceptable luggage dimensions and weight allowed on your tour. All baggage and personal effects are at all times and in all circumstances at the risk of the passenger. Baggage insurance is recommended.

Validity: Rates in this brochure are valid for the travel period stated on the brochure, and are quoted on a per person sharing twin/double room basis. All prices are show in U.S. Dollars and are calculated on currency rates and fares exiting on August 1st, 2008. Landa Cleary Travel Co., Inc. reserves the right to alter prices at any time prior to departure and without prior notice due to currency exchange rates, taxes, fees or fuel surcharges increases.

Landa Cleary Travel Co., Inc and all dba's are not responsible for misprints on the brochures as well as in Landacleary.com, RelevantJourneys.com and Materdeitours.com. Every effort is made to ensure brochure accuracy at the time of going to press, however Landa Cleary Travel Co., Inc cannot be held responsible for printing or typographical errors, or errors arising from unforeseen circumstances. In the case of computer or human billing error we reserve the right to re-invoice passengers with correct billing. 4

Travel Insurance: Landa Cleary Travel Company, Inc. has automatically added travel insurance to your reservation in addition to your deposit or balance. You may choose to decline this option by checking the appropriate "decline insurance" box on the registration form. Pre-existing conditions can only be covered if premium payment is made within 15 days of your initial trip deposit. Landa Cleary Travel Company, Inc. uses Travel Guard, AIG insurance exclusively. Travel Guard AIG Insurance does not cover general strikes in Israel and/or France. Please see policy insert for details of coverage.
