Day 1: Tuesday, July 15, 2024: Departure Day. (M) Depart Minneapolis/St. Paul airport on our non-stop flight to Dublin. Relax onboard as you fly into Irish skies.

Day 2: Tuesday, July 16: Drogheda, Hill of Slane, Monasterboycce, Downpatrick. (D) Arrive in Dublin early and travel north along some of Ireland's oldest inhabited areas. Arrive at St. Peter's Church in Drogheda where the relics of St. Oliver Plunkett can be found. Mass is celebrated here. Continue north to Monasterboycce, a monastery founded by St. Buithe, who died in 521. The name Monasterboycce is a part-anglicization of the Irish name Mainistir Bhuithe, meaning "monastery of Buithe". In Monasterboycce you will find the finest Celtic Cross in Ireland. Our next stop on our morning excursion is one of the most historic sites of Ireland's Catholic Faith, the Hill of Slane. This is the place where tradition tells us that St. Patrick, after having lit a fire during the pagan "night of darkness" (same night as the Easter Vigil), at great risk, evangelized the natives and their king regarding the Blessed Trinity, using a simple shamrock as the means for their conversion. Then continue to Northern Ireland to visit the reputed site of St. Patrick's Tomb in Downpatrick, which is also the site that houses the remains of St. Bridget and St. Columba. Afterwards, travel to Armagh area for our first night stay. Mass at St. Peter's Church in Drogheda

Day 3: Wednesday, July 17 (Part 1): Armagh. (B, D) Travel to Armagh, which has been the spiritual capital of Ireland for over 1,500 years, to visit the imposing Cathedral of Armagh, seat of the Archbishop Primate of Ireland. Construction of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic Cathedral began in 1840, but because of the intervening famine years, was not completed until 1873. The Cathedral is an imposing site, perched on the hilltop in Armagh and dominating its skyline. The church was designed and built in Neo Gothic style from pale limestone, with large twin spires. Day 3: (Continued) Wednesday, July 17: Tobernalt & Knock (continued).

Then travel west to County Sligo. Visit the Holy Well of Tobernalt where Mass is celebrated at the famous Mass Rock, where Priests celebrated Mass secretly during the penal times, known for the harsh persecutions against Catholics. Local tradition tells us that St. Patrick himself was here, and left a hand print on the old altar. This place is of great importance for the defense of the freedom to worship and a commemoration for all those who persevered in practicing their Faith in times of persecution, even if it meant endangering their lives. Afterwards, drive south west to one of the highlights of our pilgrimage, the famous Marian Shrine of Knock, where the Virgin Mary appeared to 15 people on August 21, 1879. Rosary is prayed at the site of the apparitions. Arrive at our hotel in Knock (hotel may be in another town in County Mayo), and check-in for our 2-night stay. Mass requested at Tobernalt (Armagh Cathedral or Knock are weather back up locations).

Day 4: Thursday, July 18: Shrine of Our Lady of Knock (B, D)

After your full Irish breakfast, enjoy a full day at the Marian Shrine of Knock. There we will pray a rosary while we walk around the shrine. Confessions follow and free time to explore the shrine's different areas like the Way of the Cross, the large Basilica, the old church, the Eucharistic Adoration Chapel, and the shrine's gift shop. Enjoy an evening at leisure. Mass requested at the Apparition site, Basilica or Old church. Rest of the day at leisure. Join your group for dinner at the hotel tonight.

Day 5: Friday, July 19 (part 1): Westport, Croagh Patrick. (B, D) Start the day traveling west to County Mayo on a panoramic drive to see Westport, the largest emigration port city on the northern half of Ireland. Travel to Croagh Patrick, where St. Patrick stayed for 40 days of penance, claiming for Christianity the tall mountain that was once dedicated to a pagan god. See beautiful views of the Clew Bay and the Atlantic. [Continued on next column]

Kylemore Abbey
COUNTY MAYO

Famine Road

After a symbolic climb of Croagh Patrick (only a partial climb) praying the rosary, travel through the northern part of the Connemara National Park to see Kylemore Abbey, a magnificent historic mansion nestled in the woods, now belonging to the Benedictine nuns. From there, continue through the Connemara region and admire the sweeping views of boglands and misty mountains. As you drive along you will see many sheep that graze freely and also tracts of bogland where some people hand-cut peat for home heating. Drive by Connemara's most beautiful but saddest road, the "Famine Way", where we stop to pray by the Monument to the Famine, and learn about one of the greatest suffering times of the Irish people. End your day at your hotel located in Galway City. Join your fellow pilgrims for dinner. Mass requested at Kylemore Chapel.

Corrib Cruise
COUNTIES MAYO & GALWAY

Cong Abbey
COUNTIES MAYO & GALWAY

Day 6: Saturday, July 20: Cong, Corrib Cruise*, Galway City. (B)
Depart for Cong, a small village which was the filming location for the classic movie "The Quiet Man" (Maureen O'Hara and John Wayne). Visit the ruins of Cong Abbey by the river. After your visit to Cong, pending on weather, availability and time, we may take a cruise on Lake Corrib. Afterwards, continue to one of Ireland's most charming cities! Galway City has a unique festive atmosphere with lots of culture and heritage, overlooking Galway Bay. Explore old Galway where the balance of the day is at leisure for independent activities and dining. Eyre Square forms the hub of the city and contains the John F. Kennedy Memorial Park, where you can sit and people-watch. Many of the narrow streets, such as Shop Street, are pedestrianized and contain shops, pubs and teashops. Lynch's Castle dates from 1320, but is now a bank where portions of the medieval walls are still visible along Eyre Square. Enjoy a stroll along the rushing River Corrib, which links lake Corrib to Galway Bay. There is an abundance of eating and entertainment options! Galway City is famous for live folk music which streams out of every pub. Evening at leisure in Galway City with dinner on your own. Mass requested at St. Mary of the Rosary in Cong.

Day 7: Sunday, July 21: County Clare & County Kerry. (B, D)
After Mass, drive around Galway Bay and pass through the Burren Country, an area of rocky limestone hills where a number of unique flowers thrive. This region also contains many dolmens, prehistoric monuments formed by large limestone slabs. Drive along the coastline of County Clare to view the Cliffs of Moher, one of the country's most magnificent rock formations that rise to heights of almost 700 feet above the churning Atlantic swells. Afterwards cross the Shannon Estuary in a ferry and arrive in Tarbert. Continue the drive south until our arrival in County Kerry. After checking into your hotel this evening, join your fellow travelers for dinner. Mass celebrated at either Galway Cathedral or in

Cliffs of Moher
COUNTY CLARE

County Clare.

Ring of Kerry
COUNTY KERRY

Day 8: Monday, July 22: Ring of Kerry, Killarney. (B)
Today admire breathtaking vistas of mountains, cliffs and beaches on Ireland's most popular drive, The Ring of Kerry. See a variety of natural beauty as you drive 100 miles around this scenic route. A number of stops will allow you to admire the spectacular scenery. Head back to Killarney through Moll's Gap with stunning views of the Lakes of Killarney. Then travel to Killarney, to visit its beautiful Gothic Cathedral. Evening at leisure with dinner on your own in Killarney. Mass requested at St. Michael the Archangel in Sneem.

Day 9: Tuesday, July 23: Tipperary & Kildare. (B, D)
Say good-bye to County Kerry this morning and travel to the fertile County Tipperary to visit the impressive "Rock of Cashel" Castle, seat of the High Kings of Ireland. Afterwards, travel to the county Kildare area (known as Ireland's horse country, and also the County of St. Brigid) for dinner and overnight. Mass in Kerry or Kildare.

Rock of Cashel
COUNTY TIPPERARY

Day 10: Wednesday, July 24: Glendalough and Dublin. (B, D)
Travel County Wicklow (the garden county of Ireland) to see the 6th century monastic ruins of Glendalough. Nestled in a valley surrounded by the mountains of Wicklow, Glendalough exudes the peacefulness so much desired for the contemplative prayer of the monks. St. Kevin founded this settlement and St. Lawrence O'Toole made it famous at a time when Christianity was burgeoning throughout Ireland. Today the monks are long gone, but have left the ruins of numerous tombs, chapels, Celtic Crosses and a round tower. After the tour, there will be free time to trek the trails. Travel to Dublin and enjoy a memorable and festive welcome to Dublin/farewell dinner with all your fellow pilgrims. Mass requested at St. Kevin's chapel in Glendalough.

Glendalough
COUNTY WICKLOW

Day 11: Thursday, July 25: Dublin. (B) Start the day with a panoramic drive of Dublin City, featuring views of St. Patrick's Cathedral, Christchurch Cathedral, Dublin Castle, O'Connell Street, the Post Office (site of the 1916 Rebellion), River Liffey, the Half Penny Bridge, Grafton Street and St. Stephen's Green. Visit Trinity College to see The Book of Kells. Stop by St. James Gate to get acquainted with Ireland's most famous beverage, Guinness. Afterwards, we visit White Friars Church to pray before the relics of St. Valentine, and it's here too where the group celebrates its Farewell Mass. Enjoy a night at leisure in Dublin with dinner on your own.

Day 12: Friday, July 26, 2022: Return to USA. (B, M)
Transfer to Dublin Airport for check-in as well as US Immigration and Customs which is processed in Ireland. Board your non-stop flight from Dublin to Minneapolis/St. Paul. Relax as you return to the USA.

Registration Deadline:

March 17th, 2024

(space may sell out before deadline)

Early Angel Discount Deadline: February 23, 2024

Tour Membership: To ensure a positive experience, Mater Dei Tours reserves the right to reject any client (before or during the trip at the expense of the traveler) whose conduct is incompatible with the interest of the group. Mater Dei Tours is not responsible for lost persons and for the expenses incurred while being lost. Each traveler assumes responsibility for staying with the group.

Travelers with Special Needs: Passengers who require attention must advise the tour operator at the time of booking. A qualified and physically able companion must accompany travelers who need such assistance and must assume full responsibility for their well being. Coaches are not equipped with wheelchair accessible ramps, therefore all tour members must be able to mount 3 to 5 steps into the coach. Participants should expect to walk at least 1 to 3 miles minimum in one day. Walking surfaces may at times be uneven. Mater Dei Tours is not responsible for denial of service by any suppliers.

Young Travelers: Travelers who are less than 18 years old on the departure date must be accompanied by an adult and must share the adult's accommodations. If a child will be traveling with adults other than the parents or with only one parent, it is highly recommended that a notarized letter be written by the parents or non-traveling parent granting authorization to travel, including the dates of travel. We suggest that you also contact the appropriate consulate and airlines because they may have additional requirements.

Roommate Assignments: Mater Dei Tours will make every reasonable attempt to find you a roommate. However, this is not guaranteed. If no roommate is found by the registration deadline, the passenger will have the option to upgrade to a single room (if available) by paying the single occupancy or cancel altogether with a full refund. Mater Dei Tours cannot be held responsible if the roommate you were assigned to is not agreeable to you. If you desire to get your own room, you will be responsible for all the financial consequences of such action, including but not limited to, covering the single occupancy costs of both you and your ex-roommate.

Air Transportation: We have selected airlines that are most suitable with land arrangements. All fares are subject to government approval and are subject to change without notice. Airfares are guaranteed once they have been paid in full and ticketed. Name changes required after tickets have been issued are subject to cancellation and re-ticketing at a higher fare and subject to change fees. Some airlines do not allow you to earn, and/or upgrade with frequent flier miles for group bookings.

Airline Seating: Passengers who require specific seating due to medical conditions are advised to bring Doctor's Orders to the counter so the airlines may have proof of the condition and may accommodate the order. In addition to making the request through our company, please bring the doctor's note to the ticket counter. Passengers who desire a specific non-medical related seat are requested to contact the airline directly, approximately 30 days prior to departure for preferred seating. Group seating is under control of the airline and Mater Dei Tours can only pass on your requests.

Voluntary changes to itinerary: Independent voluntary changes to an individual passenger's itinerary are usually not permitted by most of our tour suppliers. Some exceptions may be granted in a case-by-case basis. All change requests must be made prior to 45 days before departure. If passenger purchased a land only package, they are free to plan their own itinerary before or after the trip (read Land Only bookings for restrictions).

Not Included: All items of a personal nature (room service, beverages, telephone charges, laundry, etc) and meals not specified on the tour itinerary are not included and must be paid by the passenger.

Accommodations and Itinerary: Land arrangements are provided as described in the tour program. The tour company reserves the right to change or substitute (1) hotels for accommodations in similar categories (2) or features of the itinerary in order to accommodate changes in the schedule.

Meals: Meals are provided as specified in the tour program. If you require special meals due to medical dietary restrictions, we must receive written details of your requirements at the time of booking. We cannot guarantee that each and every vendor will honor your requested diet, but every effort will be made to report and accommodate these requests. No weight loss plans or special nutrition diets can be accommodated.

Passports: Obtaining a passport is the sole responsibility of the passenger. Passports must be current and valid beyond the dates of travel (except for Mexico, where your passport needs to be valid just for the dates of travel). Your airline ticket name must match your passport name or you may be denied boarding the airplane. Passengers who are denied boarding due to discrepancies between ticket and passport names or because of expired passports accept full responsibility and are subject to the cancellation terms of the tour. Some countries (like Israel) require your passport expiration to be 6 months beyond your travel dates. We recommend that you apply for your passports (if needed) no later than 4 months before departure.

Tips: Gratuities for baggage, hotel and restaurants detailed in the itinerary are included. Gratuities for Tour Guide and Motor-coach Driver are NOT included (unless otherwise stated in the brochure). Please read your "Essential Reading Material" (provided with your travel documents) for recommendations on tipping Please budget accordingly.

Smoking: Smoking is not allowed on the motor-coach but frequent stops are made throughout the day.

Travel Health: This pilgrimage is being operated under the premise that it is safe to travel under the current health protocols. If governmental authorities and/or our tour vendors, declare that it is no longer safe to travel because of Covid-19 (or any other sickness), Mater Dei will need to cancel the pilgrimage. If all our vendors cancel their services, Mater Dei will issue a full refund to all. If a passenger cancels because of fear of Covid-19 (or any other sickness), but authorities still declare that it is safe to travel as long as people practice the appropriate advice to keep proper hygiene to avoid contamination, the passenger shall be assessed the appropriate cancellation penalty detailed in the first column. Please consider bringing a face mask (may be required by some airlines and/or foreign governments), especially if you are coughing and sneezing. If you are sick with Covid-19 or any other sickness, please stay home.

Total Group Cancellation: If it becomes necessary to cancel an entire tour prior to departure, Mater Dei Tours will offer the next available date or will make a full refund of money paid as soon as all our vendors refund us your money. Mater Dei Tours cannot accept responsibility for any additional costs, fees or cancellation penalties relating to any independent non-refundable purchases (personal airfares, travel insurance, etc.). If you use a credit card as payment, traveler agrees to forfeit 3% of all credit card charges to cover merchant fees absorbed by Mater Dei.

Land Only Bookings: Passenger(s) who desire to book their own airfare do at their own risk. Land only passengers are responsible for connecting with the group at the hotel. Passenger(s) accept all responsibility for costs incurred due to misconnections with the group. Mater Dei Tours cannot accept responsibility for any additional costs or fees related to such a booking or for any cancellation penalties due to independent non-refundable airfare (even if Mater Dei Tours assisted with this booking).

Luggage: Handling of one piece of luggage per person at hotels is usually included in the cost of this tour wherever hotel luggage service is offered (some hotels do not have bell captains). Train tickets do not include portage. Luggage is carried at owner's risk throughout the tour (insurance suggested). Carry-on and hand baggage and small articles such as coats, umbrellas or cameras are entirely in the care of the passenger. Size and weight limitations for carry-on and checked baggage vary from airline to airline and even according to destination, and are becoming more restrictive. Airlines with domestic connections reserve the right to charge airline baggage fees. Some international flights are now charging airline baggage fees. Check your final documents for details of acceptable luggage, fees, dimensions and weight allowed on your tour. All baggage and personal effects are at all times and in all circumstances at the risk of the passenger. Baggage insurance is recommended (see Travel insurance section below).

Validity: Rates in this brochure are valid for the travel period stated on the brochure, and are quoted on a per person sharing twin/double room basis. All prices are shown in U.S. Dollars and are calculated on currency rates and fares existing on the day the brochure was made. Mater Dei Tours reserves the right to alter prices at any time prior to departure and without prior notice due to currency exchange rates, taxes, fees or fuel surcharges increases.

Mater Dei Tours and all dba's are not responsible for misprints on the brochures as well as in materdeitours.com or any of our websites. Every effort is made to ensure brochure accuracy at the time of going to press; however, Mater Dei Tours cannot be held responsible for printing or typographical errors, or errors arising from unforeseen circumstances. In the case of computer or human billing error we reserve the right to re-invoice passengers with correct billing.

Travel Insurance: Mater Dei Tours recommends travel insurance for your travel investment. You must purchase this insurance independently. We also recommend that travel insurance be purchased only after Mater Dei Tours notifies the traveler when their deposit money has been charged or deposited.
